Assembled over the course of several decades, this fabulous 176+/- acre Fayette County farm offers a wide-array of possibilities. A former portion of the world-renowned Spendthrift Farm, the property has two barns (with 24 stalls each), and two tenant/employee homes. The land has most recently been used for hay and crops, with no horses on the fields in years. Immediate neighbors include: Coolmore (the former Juddmonte yearling division), Dixiana, Hester Equestrian, Mt. Brilliant, and Spendthrift. This offering includes 130 acres of an existing tract (along Greenwich Pike, subject to final survey), and two smaller tracts of 11.38 and 35.33 acres. The smaller tracts have frontage along and may also be accessed via Long Valley Lane, just off Russell Cave Road. Some property boundaries are subject to a survey and are negotiable. The farm is divisible and additional acreage may be available. NOTE: This farm is not in the Fayette County PDR Program. Call for specific details!
