KIRKPATRICK & CO.

Ashland Park, Lexington-Fayette County, Kentucky

There are 58 one-bedroom units in Hanover Towers, but only one can claim the title of the largest; this is the one, and it can now be yours. Entirely renovated over the past few years, #1D boasts a stunning kitchen & bathroom, warm living room/dining room combo, a generously-sized bedroom and four (4!) large closets. Located on the first floor, the home's windows frame views of South Hanover Avenue and the lovely front fountain perfectly. A turn-key opportunity, #1D is truly a unique luxury property. Visitors to Hanover Towers will be charmed by the marble-floored lobby, rooftop terrace and hospitable doormen. Over the past decade, the unit-owners have updated the heating and air systems, roof, landscaping and all exterior windows. These expenditures, along with a superb location, make Hanover Towers an elegant and desirable destination. Amenities too numerous to list exude; one must visit this pied-a-terre to realize all it and this classic building have to offer. No smoking or pets.
